

From: christopher.shaffer@gbbragg.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/28/02 4:38pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think that the settlement between Microsoft and the state attorneys general is fair and reasonable. I think it is time that this lengthy process is over. The parties that are upset about the settlement obviously want to see Microsoft crushed at the hands of the federal government. If these parties were genuinely interested in fairness which is what they claim then they should endorse the settlement as well. The settlement is in the best interest of the nations economy and the technology industry.